PRESIDENT'S CHALLENGE

Started in 2000, President's Challenge is a national movement led by the President to rally Singaporeans to build a caring and cohesive society by raising funds as well as looking at how to better support our disadvantaged through volunteering and inclusive employment.

100% of the donations raised under President's Challenge goes towards support benefitting agencies which spans across a wide range of sectors, including healthcare, eldercare, disability including disability sports, children, families and youth, arts and rehabilitation.

list of agencies under PC2024 will be announced in Mar 2024*
