NATURE EXPLORERS @ IMBIAH TRAIL SENTOSA

Children will acquire a knowledge of the nature surrounding them and the different types of plants and animals that can be found in Sentosa's Imbiah Trail. They will be able to identify the different types of animals and plants residing in Mount Imbiah through clues left behind by them in the surroundings.

About the Trail

Join Kay the Explorer and embark on a quest to reach the Dragon's Keep! You will be equipped with the right skills and knowledge before you can begin the long journey as you will have to reach certain landmarks and overcome the different obstacles that can be found in the deep unknowns of the Imbiah Trail.

We are nature explorers!

From the children

I enjoyed the trail and there are so many things to see!

I love nature!

Wartime Travellers @ Fort Siloso Sentosa

Take a step back in time and discover the rich history and culture of Singapore and how Singaporeans lived their lives during World War 2. Conducted in a quiz game format, you will learn about the inception of Fort Siloso and how it plays a part before and during the Japanese occupation.

Children will learn more about the history of Singapore during World War 2 and how Fort Siloso is the only remaining defense fort that played a part during the war. They will gain an understanding of how life was like back then during the war for Singaporeans.

Children will learn how to appreciate and compare the difference in their lifestyle now compared to how our forefathers lived.

Let's talk about food sustainability!

Join Singa and the Kindness Cubbies as they explore various special places around Singapore to learn about Kindness and the Five Kindsville Magic Words!

This is a learning journey specially curated by Singapore Kindness Movement and Preschool Market to teach preschoolers to be kind through the following checkpoints:

1. Food sustainability
2. Being considerate on the road
3. Appreciating others

"What should we look out for on the road?"

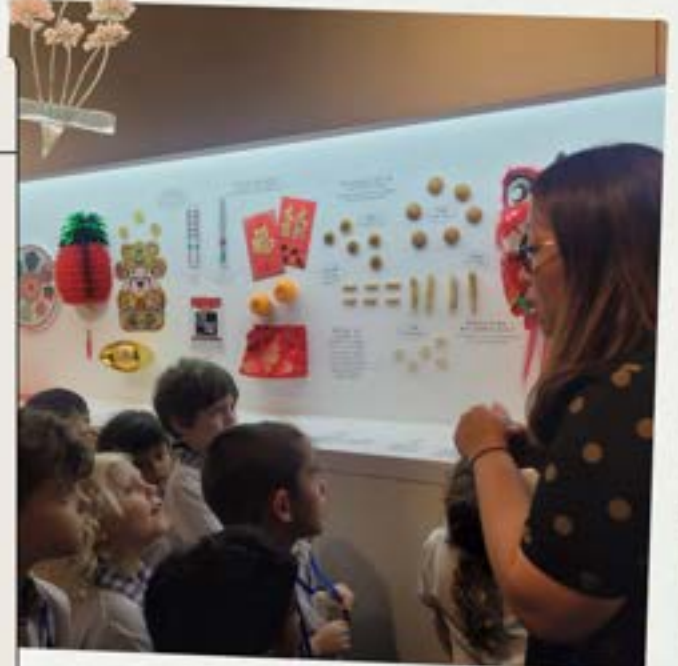

🔍 How do we celebrate Chinese Festivals? ✕

Students would be engaged in an interactive guided tour of the exhibition to learn more about how Chinese festivals have evolved and are being celebrated in Singapore today. In the workshop, students would create craftwork that reinforces their understanding of the traditions celebrated during Chinese festivals.

🔍 Spot the Cultural Differences ✕

Students would be engaged as cultural detectives during this multi-sensorial guided tour and learn to identify between borrowed and created words as well as unique local dishes. In the hands-on activity which follows, students get to deepen their understanding of cultural differences through craftwork.

跨月比赛 THE RACE AROUND THE MOON

Synopsis

续 2023 年英文演绎版的热烈回响,《跨月比赛》这个原创故事将以中文演绎,再次与观众相见。和我们一起踏上一段难忘的旅程,探寻嫦娥、玉兔和吴刚的传奇。他们和家人分离多年后,终于有机会可以一家团圆。但有一个条件——只有赢得比赛的胜利者才能回家。他们对胜利的强烈渴望是否会破坏他们珍贵的友谊?他们是否会发现真正的胜利不在于输赢而是超越竞争和失望的长久友谊?

Following the success of its 2023 English staging, The Race Around The Moon returns in 2024, now performed in Chinese! Join us on an unforgettable journey through the classic tales of Chang'e, Jade Rabbit, and Wu Gang. After years of being apart from their families, the three characters are given a chance to reunite, but there's a catch—only the victor of the race will be granted this privilege. As they set out for the race, their intense desire to win threatens to tear apart their precious bonds of friendship. Will they discover that true success lies not in winning, but in the enduring bonds of friendship that transcend competition and disappointment?
